

OM&IS Gazette

Week Whatever:

Most of you are counting down the days. As the completion of the semester approaches, stay focused on the work you still have to do. You all have worked hard through this semester, keep it up and finish strong. For those that are graduating this semester (Spring 19), you will be receiving an email survey later this week. This survey is all you need to complete to successfully complete OMIS 99/599. If you are graduating in the summer or fall, make sure you go into MyNIU and apply for graduation now. Have a great week!
