

OM&IS Gazette

Week Number Whatever

Everyone! There is sun—it exists! No longer are we to reflect upon that days that once were washed in shine...they have returned! Remember, even though it's nice outside (and getting nicer), focus on what is essential. Go to class. Complete your work. Don't let the past months of work slip because of the distractions of now. You are all doing awesome! Finish strong! For those graduating in the summer or fall semester, go ahead and apply for graduation through your MyNIU portal. If you are graduating this semester, keep an eye out for graduation information. That will be coming to you (if not already)! Have a great week!
